Timothy is a meticulous and experienced trial lawyer who represents national insurance carriers in a wide variety of matters, including no-fault/PIP, bodily injury, property damage, fire loss, and dog bite claims.

He has particular expertise in investigating insurance fraud within the Michigan no-fault system and handles SIU matters for several national carriers.

In 2019, Tim tried a complex no-fault (PIP) case in the Wayne County Circuit Court, which resulted in a favorable verdict for his client and tens of thousands of dollars in case evaluation sanctions.

In 2020, he was lead trial counsel in a no-fault case in the Oakland County Circuit Court, in which the plaintiff alleged catastrophic injuries and claimed over a million dollars in damages. After a lengthy trial, Tim convinced the jury that the
